

10

SKILLS THAT MAKES A GOOD LANGUAGE LEARNER

1. IS RESOURCEFUL

Use different methods to find an answer - flick through a dictionary, read books, or utilise technology to find a wide range of online resources.

2. TAKES RISKS

Don't be afraid, take the risk! Taking risks can increase confidence and build resilience to failure. This is the best way to help you to improve your understanding and language skills!

3. HAS FUN

Learning a new language is fun and exciting! So make sure to enjoy the process and make the most out of it. This will also help you to retain the information that you learn.

4. PARTICIPATES

By participating in lessons and group activities, you will enhance your learning and promote personal development. Be sure to contribute by voicing any thoughts or ideas that you may have!

5. MAKES MISTAKES

We all make mistakes, especially when we learn new things. Don't worry about that! If you are corrected on your pronunciation or grammar, learn from it, but don't let it get in the way of trying again!

6. ASKS QUESTIONS

Asking questions is a great way to uncover the challenges that you are facing, and it will help you to generate better solutions to solve those problems.

7. LISTENS

Active listening promotes mindful thinking! Make sure to fully engage with the teacher during lessons. Also try listening to podcasts in your free time to improve your familiarity of words!

8. USES COGNATES

Cognates can be an effective tool when learning vocabulary. The ability to use cognates in your primary language will help you to understand words in your second language.

9. PRACTICES

It's true what they say... practice makes perfect! So when you get the chance, look over your work, have a conversation with someone, or write a diary about your day.

10. NEVER GIVES UP

Most importantly, a good language learner never gives up! Although it may be challenging at times, it is crucial that you continue to persevere through any difficulties. You can do it!

