

FRENCH BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS

LE PETIT PRINCE – ANTOINE DE SAINT-EXUPÉRY

This book is a good choice for French learners because the language is relatively simple and the story is easy to follow. Its short length and clear narrative make it suitable for students at an easy level (GCSE / A2-B1).

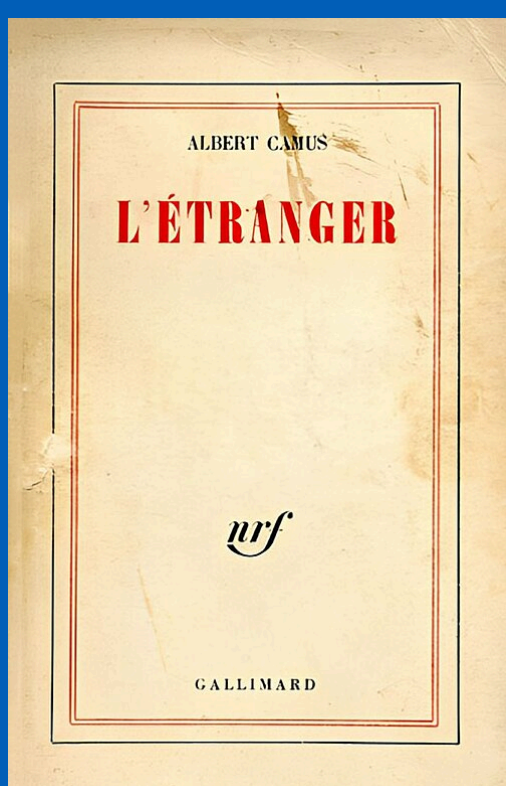

LE PETIT NICOLAS – RENÉ GOSCINNY ET JEAN-JACQUES SEMPÉ

It includes natural dialogue and everyday vocabulary. The short stories make it easier to read in small sections, making it suitable for students at an easy-medium level (GCSE / A2-B1).

VENDREDI OU LA VIE SAUVAGE – MICHEL TOURNIER

A good option for French learners because the story is clear and adventurous, making it easier to follow the plot. It is generally recommended for students at a medium level (A-Level / B1-B2).

L'ÉTRANGER – ALBERT CAMUS

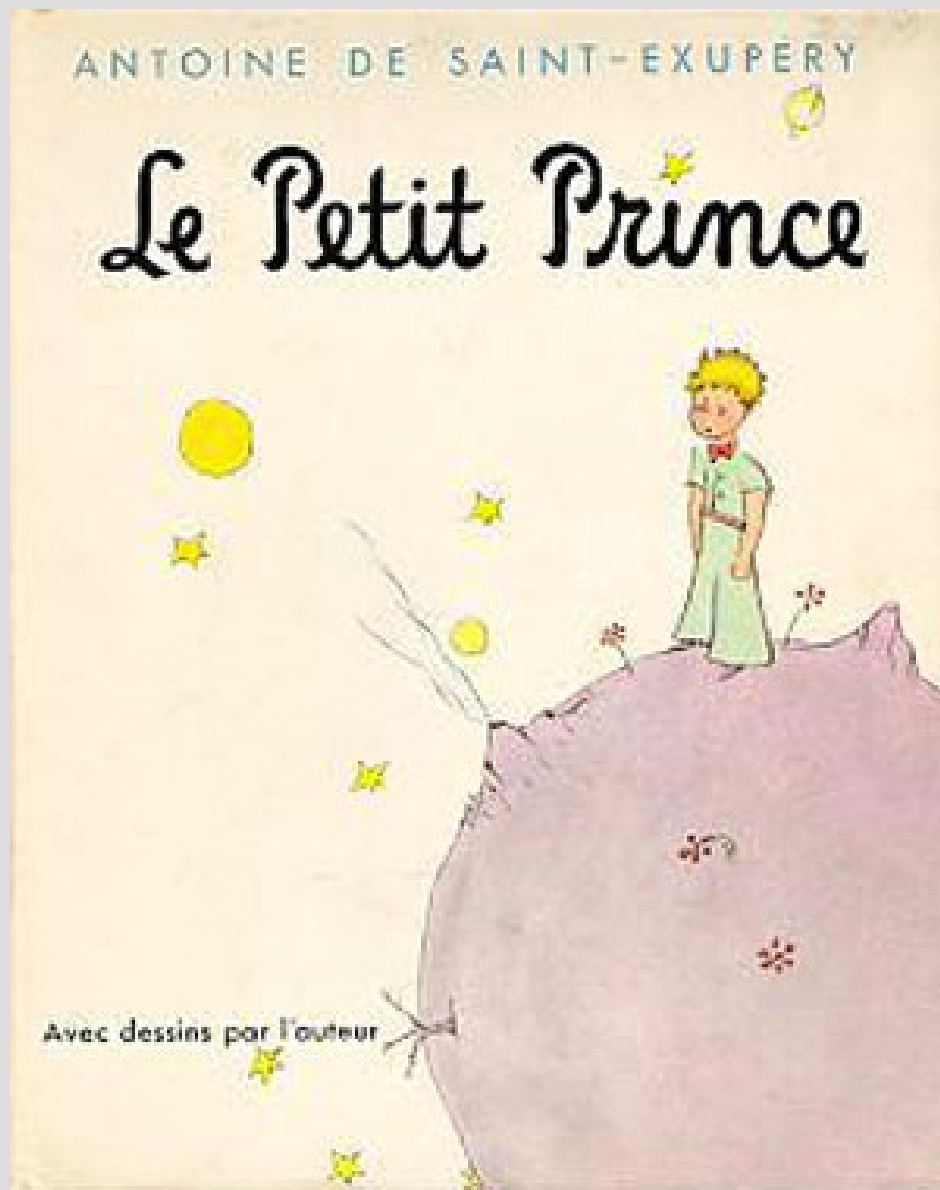

Camus' writing style is quite direct and clear, which can be interesting for French learners. However, the themes are more complex, so it is best suited for students at a medium-advanced level (B2).

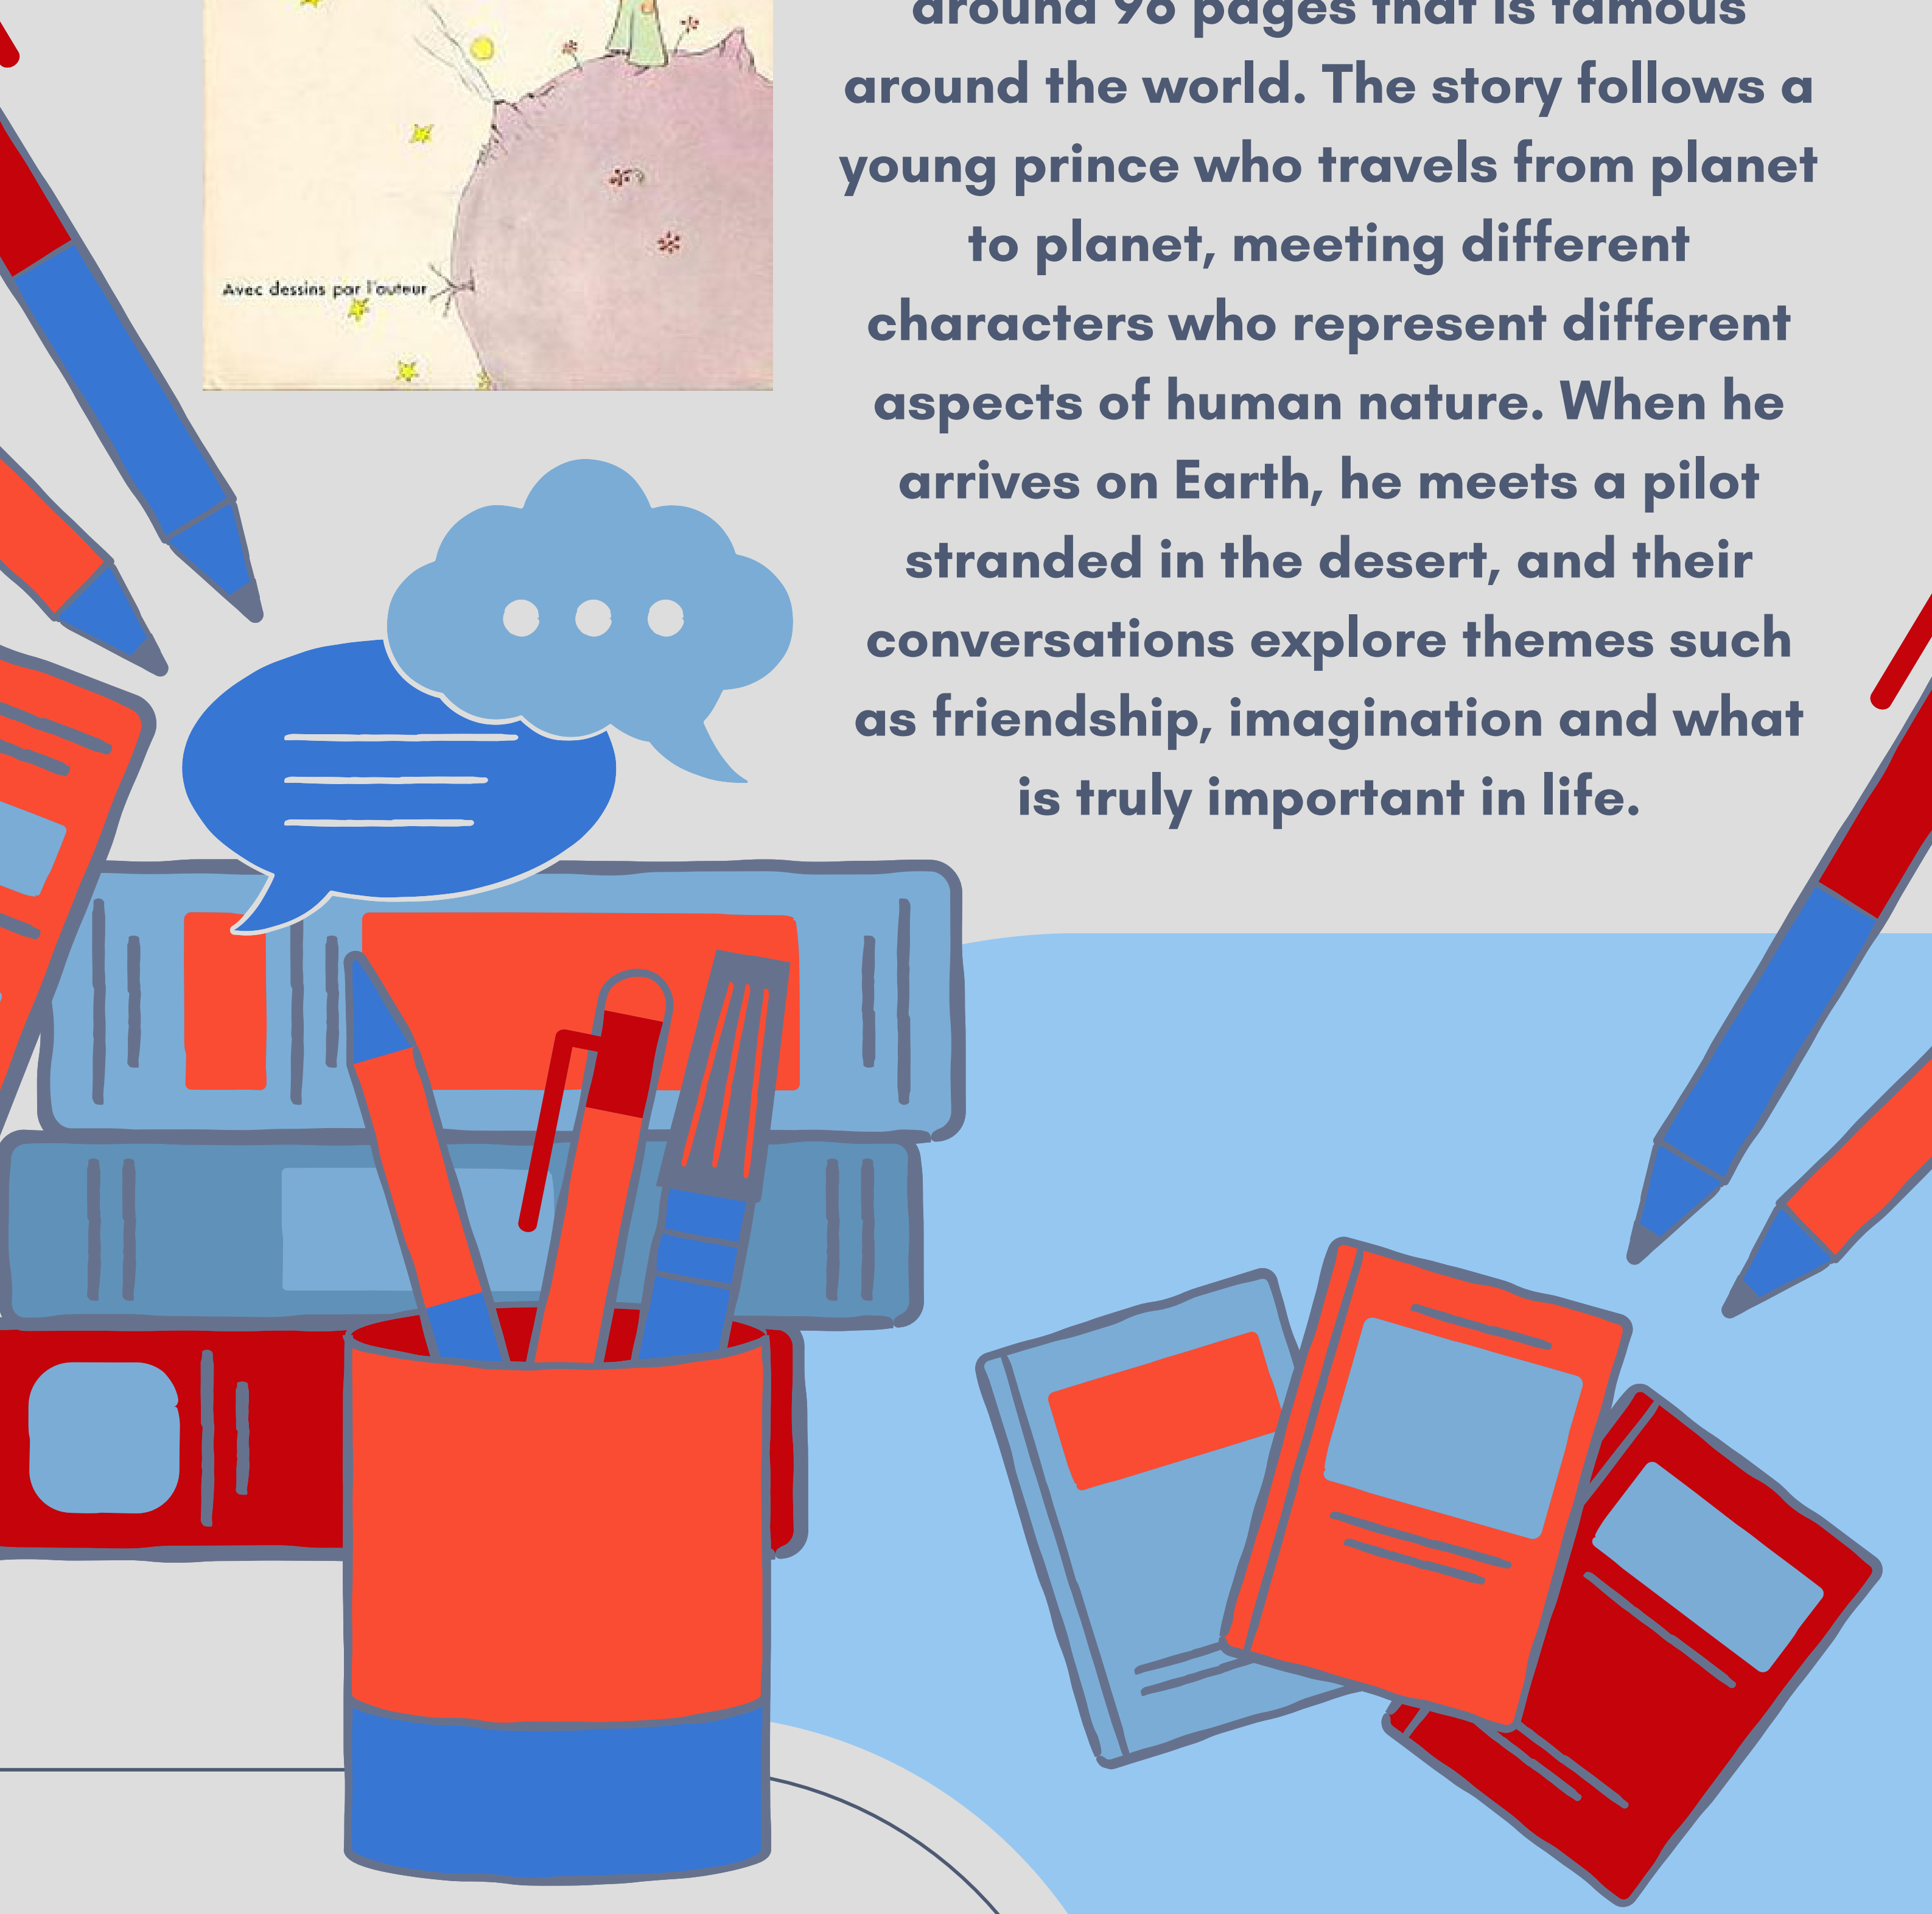

French Book Recommendations

LE PETIT PRINCE

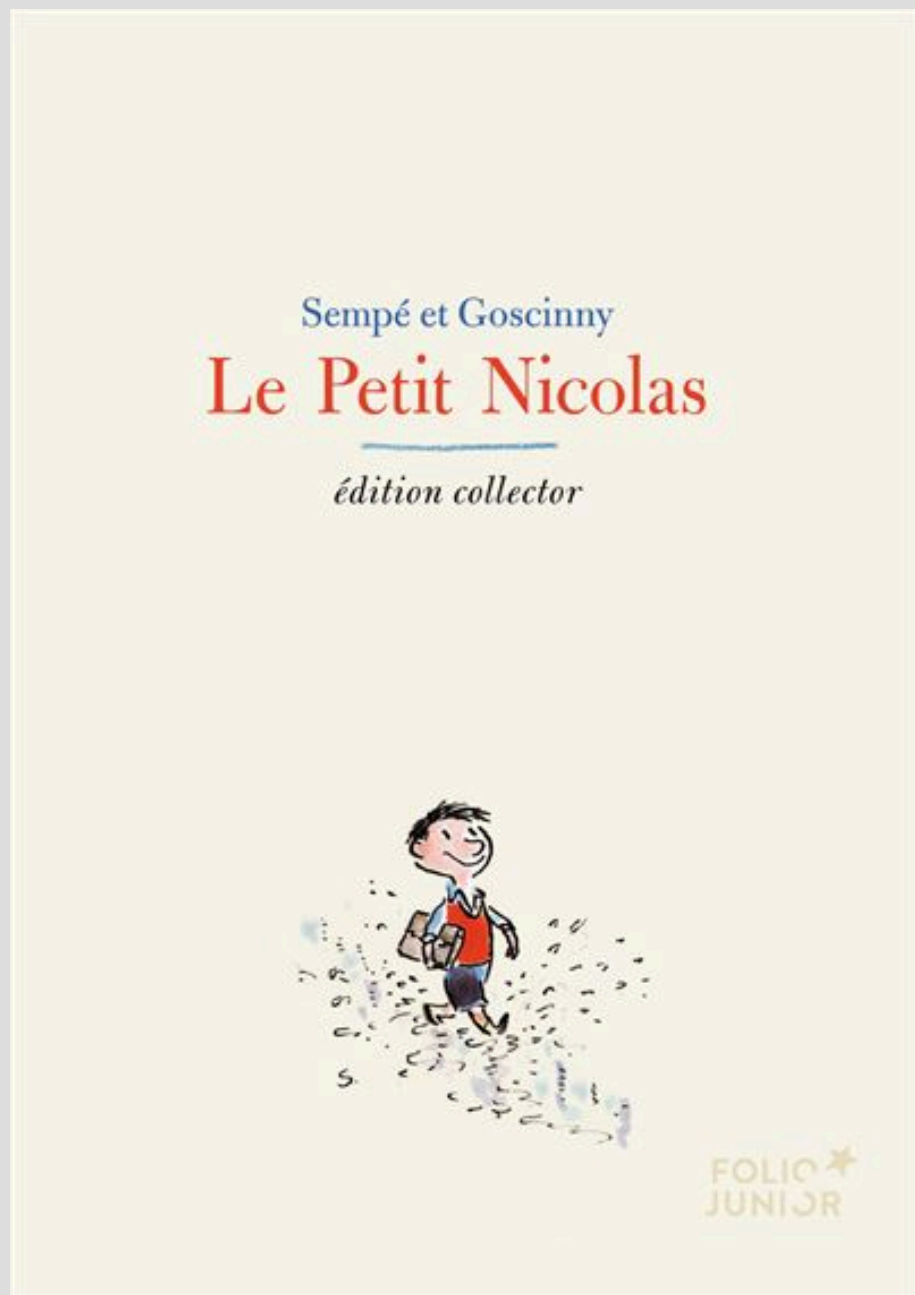

Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

Written and published in 1943, Le Petit Prince is a short philosophical story of around 96 pages that is famous around the world. The story follows a young prince who travels from planet to planet, meeting different characters who represent different aspects of human nature. When he arrives on Earth, he meets a pilot stranded in the desert, and their conversations explore themes such as friendship, imagination and what is truly important in life.

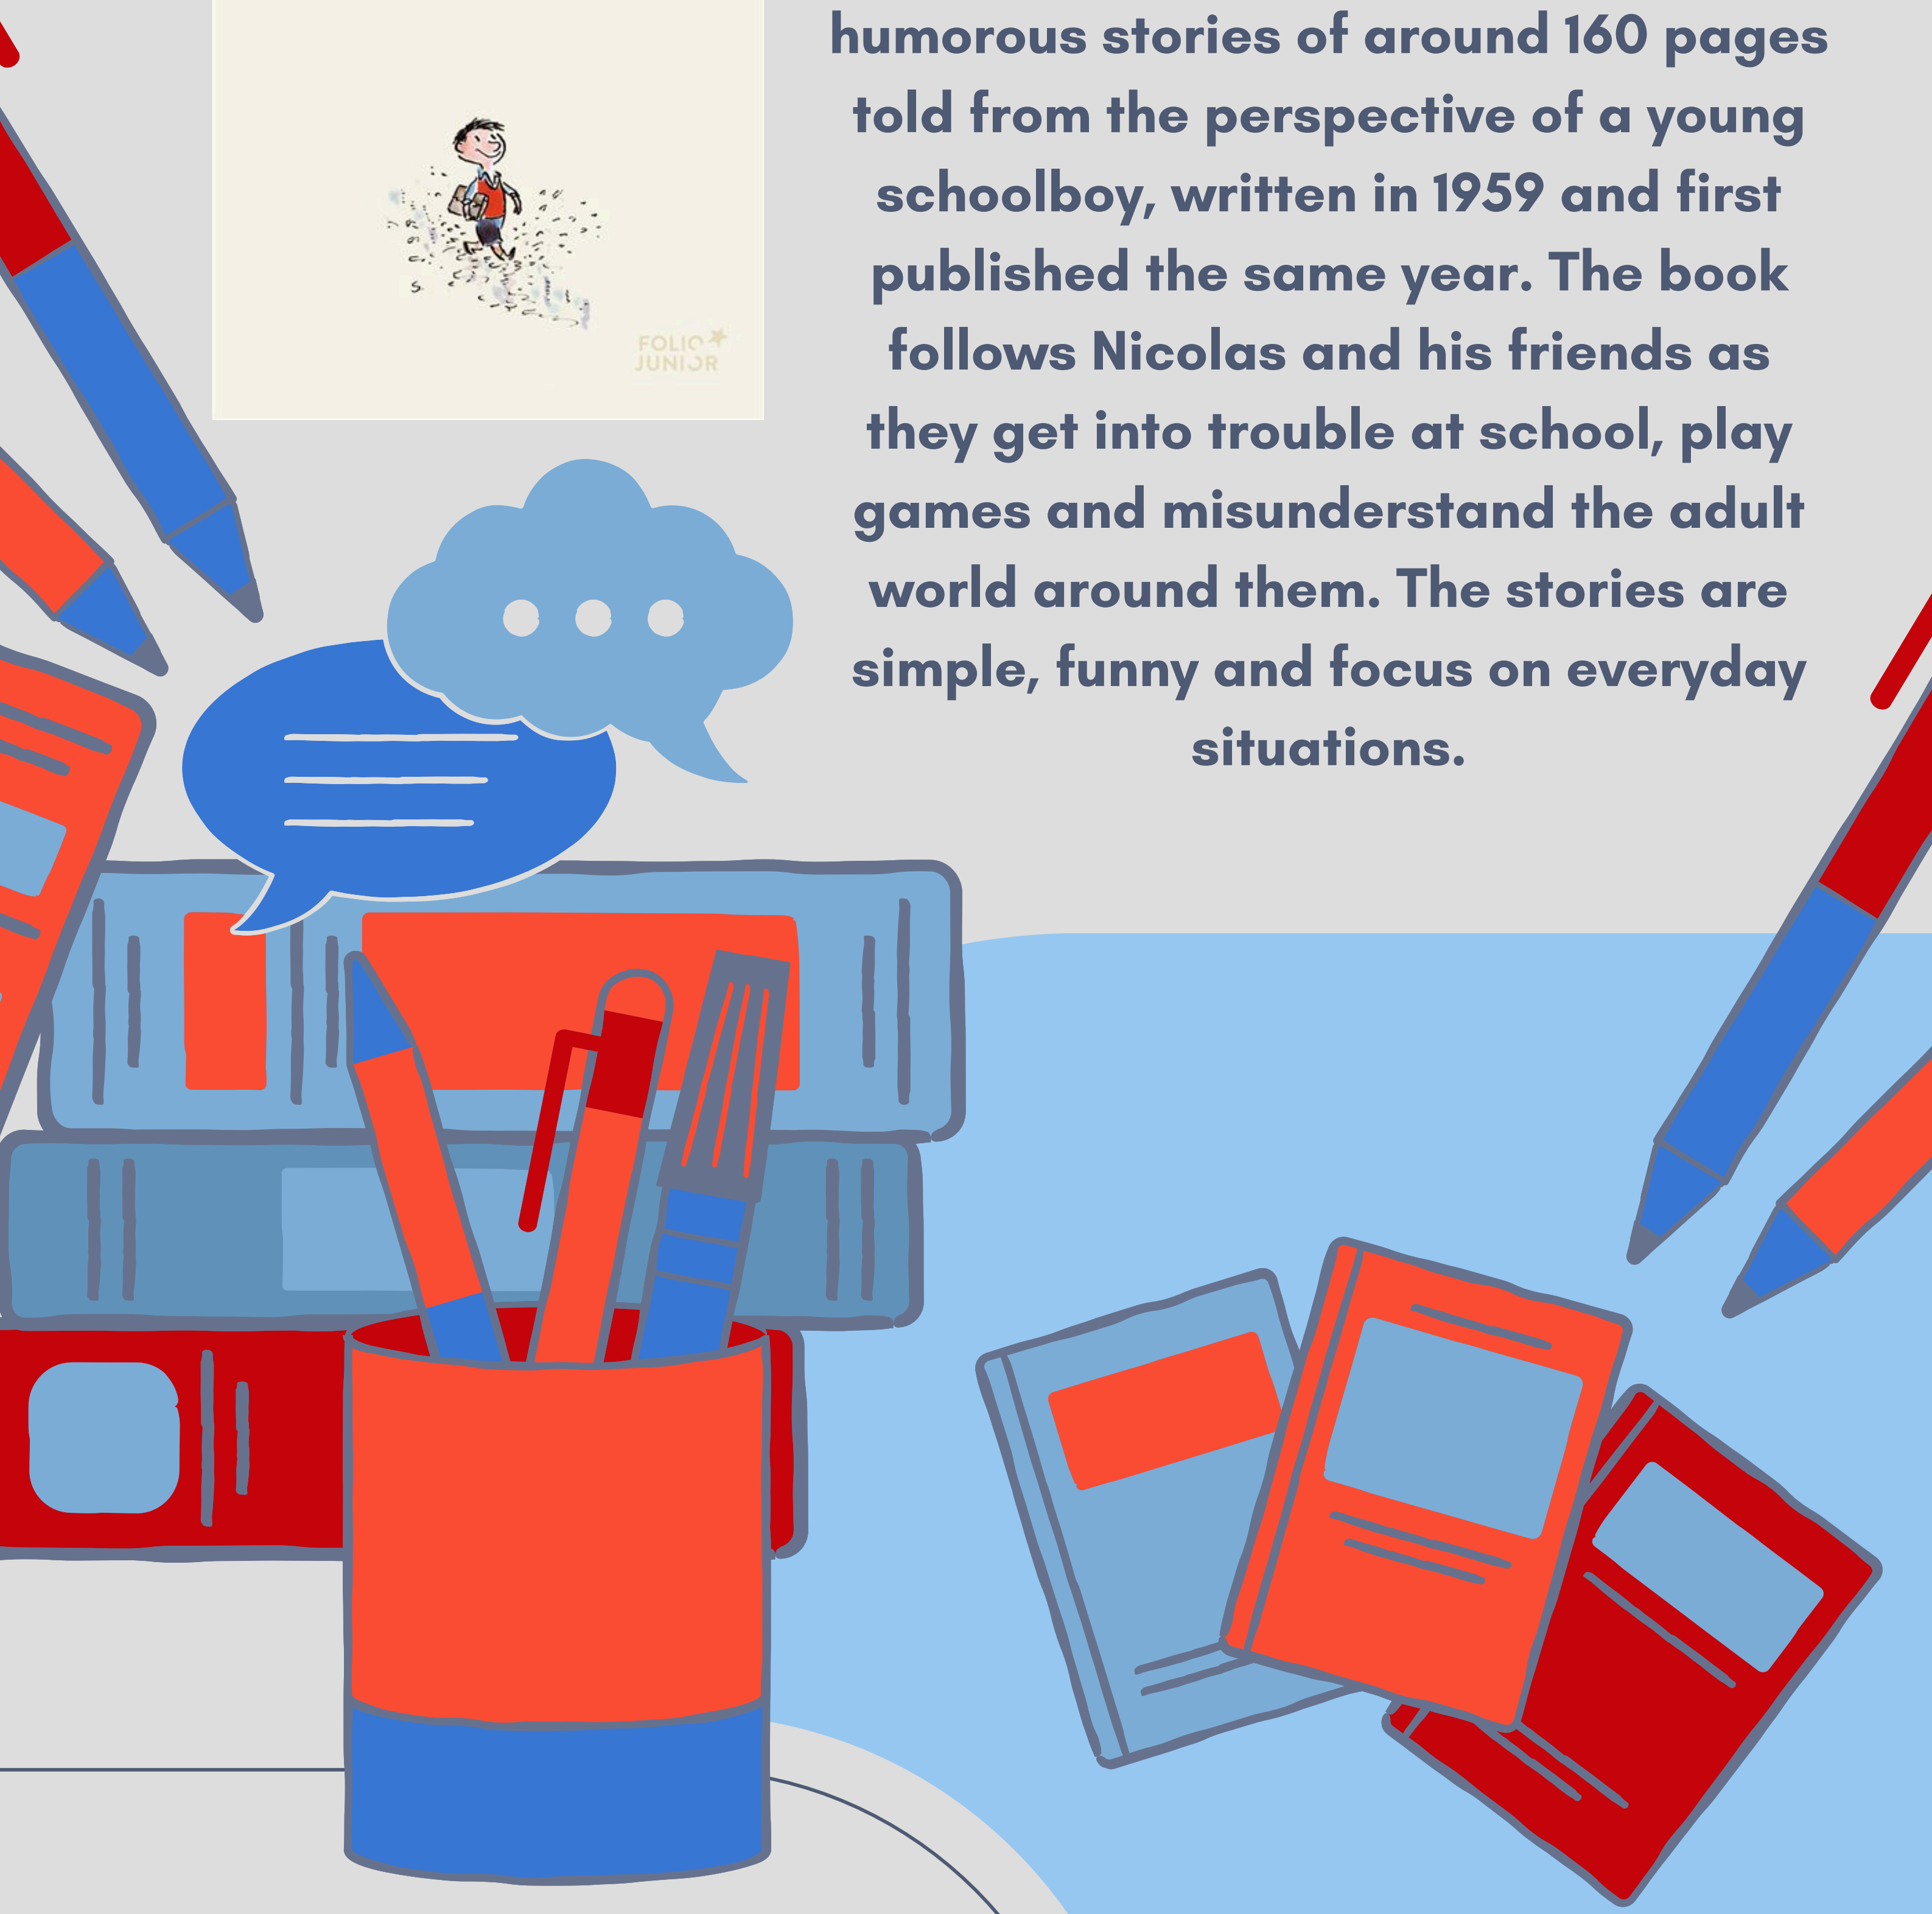

French Book Recommendations

LE PETIT NICOLAS

René Goscinny et Jean-Jacques Sempé

Le Petit Nicolas is a collection of humorous stories of around 160 pages told from the perspective of a young schoolboy, written in 1959 and first published the same year. The book follows Nicolas and his friends as they get into trouble at school, play games and misunderstand the adult world around them. The stories are simple, funny and focus on everyday situations.

French Book Recommendations

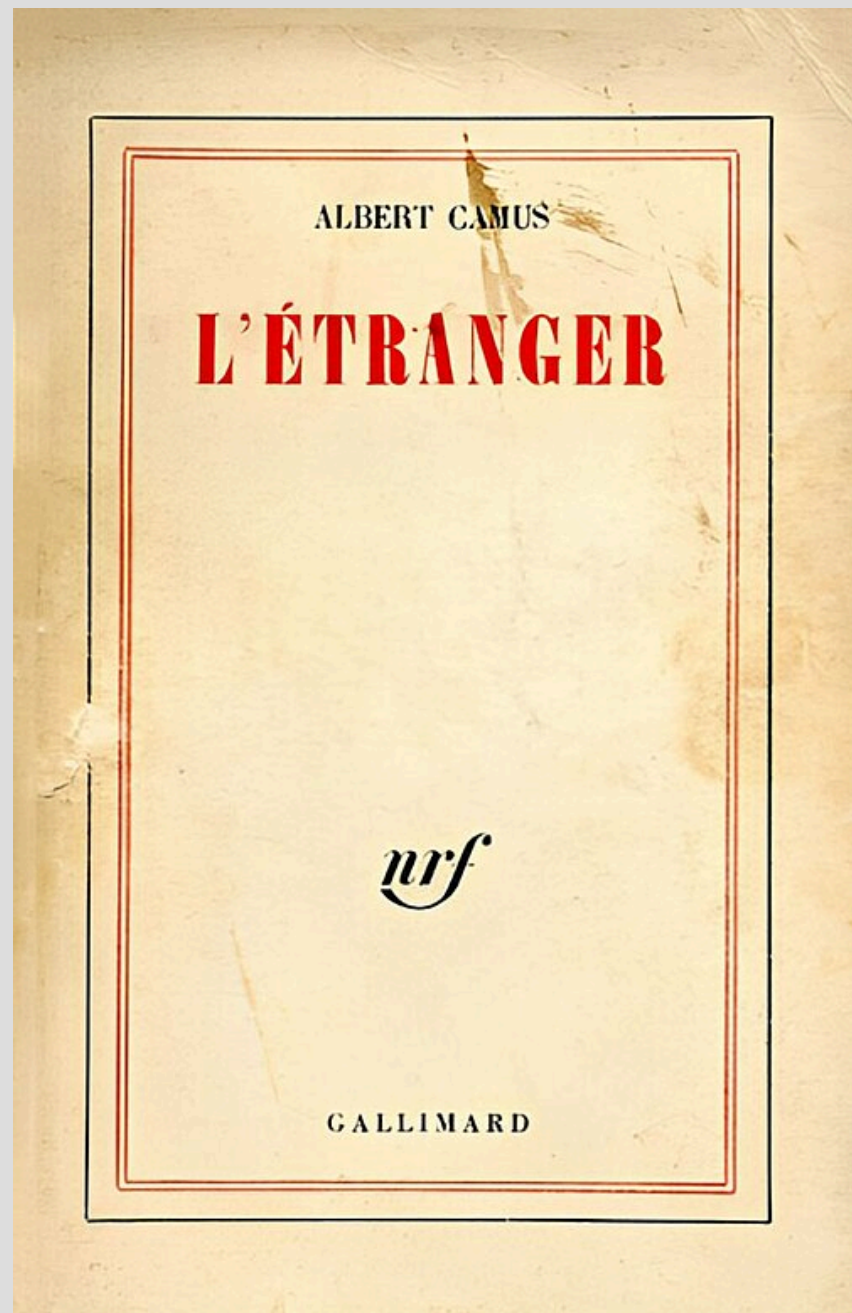

VENDREDI OU LA VIE SAUVAGE

Michel Tournier

Written and published in 1971, Vendredi ou la vie sauvage is a novel of around 160 pages inspired by the story of Robinson Crusoe. It follows a man called Robinson who becomes stranded on a desert island after a shipwreck. During his time alone he learns to survive, and later meets another character called Vendredi, who changes the way he sees the world.

French Book Recommendations

L'ÉTRANGER

Albert Camus

L'Étranger is a short novel of around 123 pages written and published in 1942, and is one of the most famous works of modern French literature.

The story follows a man called Meursault who lives in Algeria and reacts in an unusual way to the events around him, including the death of his mother and a violent incident that leads to a trial.

